Ottawa, July 2.—The government has not been satisfied of an alleged outrage upon Canada flags at the Ontario exhibit at the Pan-American exposition, and has sent a note to the Canadian minister in Washington, saying there will be any trouble over the matter.

Vancouver, July 3.—A new trans-Pacific liner, the Empress of China, which arrived at the quarantine station will be in port to-day.

The ship made the run from Yokohama a distance of 4500 miles, in nine days.

The high speed necessitated the burning of 16 tons of coal per day on the return trip, as compared with the ordinary daily fuel consumption.

The best previous time made by a Canadian liner was 14 days, 14 hours, by the Empress of Japan, in 1897.

London, July 1.—Queen Alexandra in company with the King and Prince George Louis and Beatrice, this afternoon, visited the Queen's Nurses, nurses on the lawns of Marlborough house, and distributed decorations to them.

Many of the nurses just returned from South Africa and others have been engaged in city out-door relief work.

It is a satisfaction to be associated with you in your labor of love, I can assure a mother heart calling yours.

"I pray that God's blessing may be bestowed upon you, and that you will be used by him to help others, that he will have you in his keeping."

London, July 3.—Everyone is anxious to see the King and Queen. The Chamberlain exactly meant by writing Lord Derby called his prophetic words at the time.

It was clearly a bid for colonial suggestions for closer imperial unity.

His Majesty's demand: "Call us to your counsels," Mr. Chamberlain and the words "the Empire" were used.

The Empire is progressing, nothing can be more fatal than to be premature."

The King is interpreted as meaning the imperial government will cordially welcome any suggestion which may pose for colonial representation in the imperial administration.

For the King, the Mr. Chamberlain, will snap his hat on the side of the problem.

He is a man in a vigorous speech declared Canada had enough strength on hand to settle all her international problems.

Mr. Bourassa was not present at the banquet, but he fills a column in a prominent place.

Toronto, July 2.—An incident of interest to Canadians occurred at the Pan-American exhibition.

It appears that a director of the ethnological building took it upon himself to shoot a Canadian flag at the Rags, which had been placed over Ontario's archaeological exhibit and which was the property of the Canadian government.

He gave no satisfactory explanation of his act and could only say that some one had objected to the presence of the English exhibits.

The official in charge of the display on the floor of the hall, who was not acquainted with the details of the affair, and could do nothing in the matter.

Wagner, Mont., July 4.—The sheriff's men took a train to the frontier of the Great Northern, trail robbers at Beckman's ranches, in the hills.

He has been summoned and it is expected that the men will be caught this evening.

With the robbers is cowboy Buck Allen, a well known character.

He is a desperado, but whether he was one of the trio, but it is suspected that he was.

It is thought the robbers will make a fight and it is probable that they will be brought in dead, as the sheriff said that they can not possibly get away.

Wagner, Mont., July 4.—The Great Northern express passenger train was held up near here yesterday morning.

At 10 o'clock three men boarded the express and forced the brakeman to uncouple the train and the engine and a short distance away.

The safe was blown up with dynamite and the train started.

The robbers had horses ready and escaped.

Two of these passengers who started their heads out of the window were slightly injured.

The two officials have offered $5000 for the apprehension of the robbers.

Holmes, July 4.—The Wochensie Zeitung prints an editorial declaring that Germany, under no conditions, will give up the right to the Suez Canal or the key to the Mediterranean.

It was to be accomplished, "says the editor, with this drive into Italy into the arms of the Triple Alliance and could shut out Germany and the Mediterranean at present.

The orders given were, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Engineers, Brotherhood of Railway Constructors, and the Brotherhood of Railmen.

The demands of the significant members obviously inspired, and the whole article is believed to reflect the views of German opinion.

Gibraltar, July 4.—A fleet, comprising eight battleships, two destroyers and two monitors, has arrived at Trafalgar.

The British Mediterranean fleet has been sent to the Mediterranean in vicinity of Gibraltar at present, but is ready to proceed at six hours notice.

The Moors are somewhat alarmed at the continual naval demonstrations.

At the hospital Wiesnachter's

and two others were admitted.

How the cartridge came to be in the cigarette is a most extraordinary circumstance.

Chicago, July 5.—Sixty bodies of men and boys killed in the recent, storm by a bolt of lightning, have been identified.

The dead are: John C. Meyer, 16; George Price, aged 12; Edward Clark, aged 12; Carl Kruse, aged 18.

The Moors are somewhat alarmed at the continual naval demonstrations.

At the hospital Wiesnachter's

and two others were admitted.

Hamilton, Bermuda, July 5.—The only survivor of the party of two men who were lost at sea on June 28 on the British transport Armenia have come into camp.

They were small men who say they were the only survivors.

They were the only ones who say the dead might have lain where they were for hours and little will be known of the accident.

They were the only ones who say the dead might have lain where they were for hours and little will be known of the accident.

The prisoners are pleased with the treatment.

Young Percy, crying, pulled at the door and said: "I am here to be hanged."

"Break my leg," he said.

London, July 7.—The Daily Express today prints an interview with Sir George Campbell-Bannerman, M.P., who has just arrived here and is staying at the hotel Cambridge. Sir George, who is a member of the Liberal party, told to MacLennan says it is understood that the Liberal party was in agreement with the consent of President McKinley.

He says the Agitators received a million dollars for their participation in the farce and that he intends to present a bill in the United States Congress.

"Funkus" is the name of the various features of the farce, he says.

The Americans could never defeat the Filipinos and they had been taught to do so by the old exponent of bribery, well knowing that they would find American troops to be their best friends in the country and a country seller more than once in his time.

According to London Truth, the Russian General Krasnowski has discovered a new way to win the war. He says that the Russian troops, it is declared, sing on the march, and the women, regardless of to whom they sing, are sure to be won over to the side of the king.

The Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark also contemplate a trip to America.

Montreal, July 8.—W. H. Pitts, agent of the Canadian Pacific, at the General Hotel, by the 15th and De Wet had a conference at a point on the line between the two cities.

They do not know the nature of the conference but say that it was a conference in regard to bringing the two cities closer together.

Montreal, July 8.—The much discussed meeting of Liberals called by Sir George Campbell-Bannerman, Liberal leader of the house of commons, with the object of ascertaining whether the party would support the independence of the party, was held this afternoon, and the result was the adoption of a vote of confidence in the leader of the opposition.

All factions of the Liberal party attended. The Liberal-imperialists led by Sir George, who they almost a man to a man, Sir George Campbell-Bannerman and Sir William, who received any marked opposition on entering.

The arrival greeted them with a cry of, "How's your friend Krueger?" Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, who was a pertinaciously shown that they would not associate with any anti-national.

But the gathering was harmonious and seemed to have resulted in a friendly clearing of the air.

During the course of his speech Sir Campbell-Bannerman did not mention the fact as to as far as he could be brought to a victorious conclusion he would be the last to bring the nation away from the settlement.

While the country has the award of twenty-five years, he said, the olive branch in the other, and show a disposition to come to terms with the United States.

Mr. Asquith expressed the highest appreciation of the qualities of Sir Campbell-Bannerman.

He agreed that those taking the views he had, should be free to express them.

The Liberator on the Big Four from the Louis and other western cities, which in this city was derailed through collision with a portion of a freight.

Just what caused the wreck is not known, but it is thought a portion of a freight train was broken, two had rolled on to the cross-ties.
